French language courses Accommodation on the spot

✍ Location

Foix is a little medieval town, full of character, with its narrow winding streets, one hour from Toulouse, in the foothills of the Pyrénées.

Valorme is located in a small and quiet street in the heart of the medieval town, with many little shops and restaurants near by.

Access is easy

By car: less than one hour's drive from Toulouse

By train: up to 12 trains a day from Toulouse

By plane: numerous domestic and international flights to Toulouse or Carcassonne

✍ Classes

The school is open all year round except a few weeks (ask for details). A new class begins each Monday morning.

The intensive course enables you to speak French all day long

Classes in a small group, with emphasis on oral communication

Outings in the afternoon to discover the area (prehistoric caves, Pyrénées mountains, medieval villages...)

Lunches with your teacher

Corine, your teacher, (graduated in teaching French as a foreign language) has been teaching French to adults since 1987.

Our students

Adults of all ages (6 maximum) who have usually studied French before and wish to speak with more confidence.
